

18th Annual Fall Transportation Conference
September 30 - October 1, 2010
Cox Pavilion—University of Nevada Las Vegas

Conference Details:

This two-day conference will consist of technical paper presentations by various authors as well as presentations by several public agencies on various transportation-related topics. The conference will also include exhibits by a number of transportation vendors. Conference attendees will earn 13.0 Professional Development Hours (PDHs). A preliminary program summary is attached.

The conference will be held at Cox Pavilion located on the northeast corner of the intersection of Tropicana Avenue and Swenson Street in Las Vegas, Nevada. A location map is provided on the following page. Parking will be available in the Black VIP lot in front of the Cox Pavilion. Participants should make their own travel and hotel arrangements as early as possible. Last-minute hotel reservations in Las Vegas can be difficult to obtain.

Registration and Fees:

The fee for registration applications postmarked by Thursday, September 23, 2010, is $90 for members of a sponsoring organization (there is an additional discount for members of ITS Nevada), $125 for non-members, and $50 for university students. A late fee of $20 ($25 for non-members) will be added to registration applications postmarked after September 23, 2010. The registration fee includes a continental breakfast on both Thursday and Friday, as well as Thursday's luncheon and evening social. Registrations received after the early-registration deadline are not guaranteed lunch. Please complete the attached registration form and mail along with registration fee to the address below or fax the registration form to (702) 632-2838.
